Fall 2000

President's Message

Don Brodie

Dear Cousins,

What a wonderful reunion we had at Doane College this summer! I would like to express my deep appreciation to the college staff for their gracious kindness and effort in preparation for the reunion. It was nice to see so many new faces in Crete, Nebraska. For the first time, we welcomed cousins from England, with Derek and Margaret Done joining us from Marlow, Bucks, England.

Reunion attendees chose Bucks County, Pennsylvania as the site for the reunion in 2002. The national executive committee will organize it, with the assistance of Doane College. The date for the reunion will be announced in the spring newsletter.

In regard to future reunions, a committee was appointed to discuss options for possible locations. We want to make reunions interesting to attract new people and new ideas. Locations suggested include Florida, Ohio, Ontario, California, and Doane College. At this time, no definite arrangements have been made.

I'm honored to be the first Canadian president of the Doan(e) Family Association of America. I hope the remainder of your summer was enjoyable.

Sincerely,

Don Brodie
President

Doan(e) Family Association of America, Inc., Reunion Held

The 46th biennial Doan(e) family reunion was held July 24-29, at Doane College, Crete, Neb. A complete report of events will be published in the Proceedings.

The Doan(e) family reunion, held on the beautiful Doane College campus in Crete, Nebraska, was a great success and enjoyed by all.

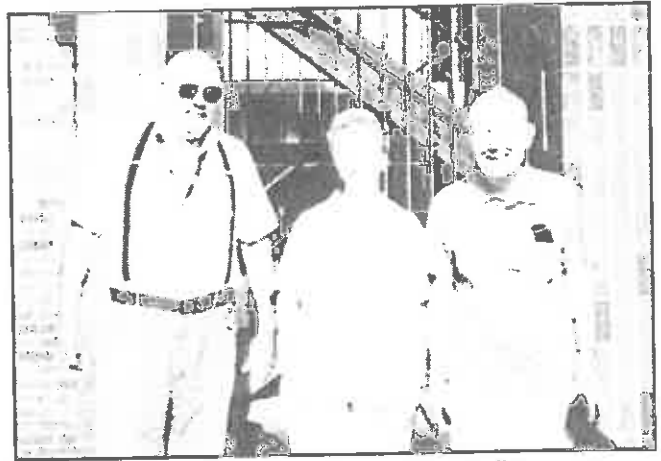

Field trips were great fun. A daylong trip was taken to Omaha where family members visited the Henry Doorly Zoo, the drive-through Lee G. Simmons Conservation Park & Wildlife Safari, and a final stop at the Strategic Air Command Museum.

The second day, the family visited Lincoln or agricultural sites in the Crete area. Those going to Lincoln toured the Nebraska State Capitol, which included a history of the building. From there, the group went to Memorial Stadium at the University of Nebraska. While there, family members met some of the players and got their autographs, took pictures, sat in the sky box-level press box, and walked on the FieldTurf-covered football field. Last stop of the day was at Southpointe Pavilion Shopping Center. The agricultural tour, led by Ted and Alice Doane, of Waverly, included stops at a swine operation, cattle operation, dairy farm, and a tour of American Tool Company in DeWitt.

Another highlight of the reunion was a visit to the college bookstore. Family members purchased many souvenirs with the name Doane imprinted on them. A banquet marked the close of the reunion. Door prizes were awarded, Doane College faculty members entertained, and a delicious prime rib dinner was served.

A few family members who climbed the bell tower can tell you about the beauty of the Doane College campus. Pictured are Ray Doane, Milan, Ind.; Janice Doan, Cynthiana, Ky.; and Bruce Doane, Fort Worth, Texas. Bruce thought the campus was so beautiful that he climbed the tower not once, but twice!

Other activities during the week included a memorial service, historical presentations, family talent night, introduction of newly elected officers, and group photos that will be printed in the Proceedings.

Raffle tickets were sold for a handmade quilt that was won by Kay Blair Hartman. Proceeds went to the scholarship fund. Ethridge Doane would like to extend his gratitude to those who made donations to the endowment and scholarship funds.

DFA family members enjoyed the Friday night banquet at Doane College.

A Visit With Emma Barrows

Laura and Megan Doane with Emma Barrows at Barrows' home this summer.

Brian and Ann Doane, Laura and Megan, Litchfield, N.H., stopped in Vestal, N.Y., to visit with Emma Barrows, former Doan(e) family historian. The Doanes were on their way home from the July reunion at Doane College in Crete, Neb. Barrows was anxious to hear about all the events of the reunion and news of old friends.

The Doanes were surprised to find a new Barrows family member. As most people know, Emma has a dog named Candy. When a neighbor died, Frank Barrows (Emma's late husband), brought the neighbor's dog to their house. They had it ever since. Tiffany has joined Candy, and they both bring Emma great companionship, as well as keep her busy. Megan would have loved to bring at least one of the dogs home with her!

Korean War Veteran Archive

The following article was submitted by Barbara Doane, Westfield, N.J. This is for information only, and not sponsored by the Doan(e) Family Association.

An archive has been created at Graceland University, Lamoni, Iowa, for Korean War veterans. The archive is interested in donations of papers, journals, photos, etc., to be preserved. For more information, contact Dr. Paul M. Edwards, Director, Center for the Study of the Korean War, 1401 W. Truman Road, Independence, MO 64050-3434.

Significant Records Are In Danger Of Being Lost

The problem:

- The average age of a Korean War veteran is approaching 65.
- Personal papers, combat records, journals, and pictures will be lost if not collected and preserved within the next 10 years.
- The Center for the Study of the Korean War is the only archive devoted to collecting and preserving the records of the Korean War veteran. It cannot be done without your help.

How you can help:

- Encourage veterans and their families to contribute archives relating to the Korean War.
- Spread the word. Let interested parties know about the Center for the Study of the Korean War. Encourage them to call (816) 252-5624.
- Make a contribution to the Center, which is totally dependent upon the gifts of interested individuals. All donations are tax-deductible.

Center For The Study Of The Korean War
The Center for the Study of the Korean War is a not-for-profit corporation dedicated to archiving the "forgotten war" and remembering its veterans.

The Center currently houses and has available to the public, documents, personal letters, photographs, diaries, memoirs, official orders, maps, oral histories, tapes, memorabilia, personal histories, pilots' logs, command reports, ship newsletters, as well as manuscripts contributed by veterans and their families.

Nowhere else will you find, in one place, more commercial films and published manuscripts regarding the Korean War. In addition to collecting works, the Center has independently published four significant works of annotated bibliography concerning the Korean War, including a book on films and one on poetry inspired by the Korean War.

The Center for the Study of the Korean War serves the public as the only archive of its kind, and serves the Korean War Veterans Association as its historian's office.

Doane Booze

by Brian H. Doane, Litchfield, N.H.

Did you know our Boston relatives were in the booze business? Well, my brother-in-law in Oxford, Maine, has come across two bottles so far. The first was an amber color, Coopers Rye Whiskey, distributed by the John S. Doane Co., 149 Blackstone St., Boston, Mass. The second was a three-part clear bottle, California Port whiskey, distributed by John S. Doane Co., of 149 & 151 Blackstone St., and 12 & 14 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., established in 1866. In looking in The Doane Family, Volume #1, page 473, I located a John S. Doane, born June 1, 1841. It states he is in business at 149 Blackstone St., Boston, Mass.

Mekeel, Arthur J., THE QUAKERS AND THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, Sessions Book Trust, York, England, 1996. (I found this particularly helpful in understanding economics and politics of the time.)

*Write to George S. MacManus Co., 1317 Irving Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107, or phone 215/735-4456, fax 215/735-3635. Established in 1937 Rare and Important Books, Americana, English and American Literary First Editions. (In March 1998, I found a copy of the NEW DOANE BOOK that a member purchased for $85. I have also been told it appeared once on Borders on the Internet, but was never able to find it.)
